Notes for Matilda Young:

There is an oral history that Matilda was the sister of John Wagner's first wife, Mary Brickley. And she may be found as Matilda Brickley in some family trees. But her death certificate indicates she was the daughter of Hannah Young and an unknown father; and her son William's obituary says his mother was Matilda Young. No evidence has been found to suggest that Matilda's mother was a married woman; she appears as Hannah Young in the probate file of her own mother, Hannah (Saylor) Young.

For the oral history to be correct, Matilda could only have been the half-sister of Mary Brickley -- meaning she was the illegitimate child of John Brickley and Hannah Young.

In 1910, Matilda, 71 and a widow, was living with her son, William, in Burnside Twp., Clearfield Co., Pennsylvania. William was still single.
